

WHAT HAPPENS ON WEDNESDAY?

Habakkuk 1:1–2:4, 3:17–19b

- Living by faith means, living like God is sovereign no matter what happens!
- God is sovereign means, He is always in charge and always in control of everything! • Isaiah 46:10

He is the Most High, Lord of heaven and earth; subject to none, influenced by none, absolutely independent. God does as He pleases, only as He pleases, always as He pleases. None can thwart Him, none can hinder Him. ~A. W. Pink

GOD IS STILL SOVEREIGN ON WEDNESDAY!

Sovereignty of God and the free will of man?

Scripture teaches a tension between the two. God is absolutely sovereign. No plan of his can be thwarted, and he is in control of all people, events, and history. But Scripture also teaches that we are free, moral agents who make decisions, and those decisions can impact things for eternity. How those truths go together is a mystery.... Either extreme will land you in a theological ditch. ~Chip Ingram

Most Christians salute the sovereignty of God but believe in the sovereignty of man. ~R. C. Sproul

Men will allow God to be everywhere except on his throne. They will allow him to be in his workshop to fashion worlds and to make stars. They will allow him to be in his almonry to dispense his alms and bestow his bounties. They will allow him to sustain the earth and bear up the pillars thereof, or light the lamps of heaven, or rule the waves of the ever-moving ocean; but when God ascends his throne, his creatures then gnash their teeth; and when we proclaim an enthroned God, and his right to do as he wills with his own, to dispose of his creatures as he thinks well, without consulting them in the matter then it is that we are hissed and execrated, ... for God on his throne is not the God they love. They love him anywhere better than they do when he sits with his sceptre in his hand and his crown upon his head. But it is God upon the throne that we love to preach. It is God upon his throne whom we trust. ~Spurgeon

- Lamentations 3:37-38 ESV, Romans 8:28, 1 Timothy 1:17, 6:15b-16

Nothing happens to man without the permission of God. ~Euripides
