

God's Final Pleas: Remember Who I Am

1. I work on my _____ not yours. 2:17

➤ Answer Questions based on our wisdom and not God's word is never a good thing.

Since evil prevailed so greatly in the nation, God couldn't be very bothered by it, could he? In fact, he must love it, or else he'd do something about it! The level of sin, crime, and corruption was such that it was as if God were encouraging it.
~Douglas Stuart

• 1 Corinthians 4:5a, Colossians 3:25

2. I am _____. 2:17-3:1-3, 5

• Galatians 6:7

➤ We want God to give mercy and grace to us but we don't want Him to give it to others.

By judging others we blind ourselves to our own evil and to the grace which others are just as entitled to as we are.
~Dietrich Bonhoeffer

➤ We are always tempted to be more concerned about someone else's sin than we are about our own.

➤ We should always be more concerned about our sin.
