

➤ Biblical hope is the confidence expectation that something will happen.

HOW TO LIVE IN LIGHT OF THE END OF ALL THINGS.

1. Be _____ for it. 7

Scripture ... does not call for overzealous eschatological extremism (e.g., date-setting, undue preoccupation with or fascination about unrevealed details, unwise speculation about the relationship of current events to last things, or dropping out from society or shirking responsibility while passively waiting for His return). ~John MacArthur

2. Pray the _____ way. 7

a. Be serious.

b. Be watchful.

➤ How serious and watchful are we in our prayers?

3. Love others _____ . 8

➤ Love is an action. It is not theoretical or abstract and it involves very real people.

• Matthew 18:20-21

➤ Letting love cover it is forgiveness, like it never even happened.

Where love abounds in a fellowship of Christians, many small offences, and even some large ones, are readily overlooked and forgotten. But where love is lacking, every word is viewed with suspicion, every action is liable to misunderstanding, and conflicts abound – to Satan's perverse delight. ~Wayne Grudem

Biblical forgiveness is a promise.

I will not dwell on it.

I will not use it against you in the future.

I will not bring it up again to you or anyone else.

I will not let it hinder our personal relationship.

4. Be _____ to others. 9

φιλόξενος phi-lox-en-os –

φίλος phil-ox –

φιλεω phi-le-o –

ξενος xe-nos –

ξενίζω xe-ni-zo –

5. _____ to others. 10

6. Strive to bring _____ to God, in all things. 11

• 1 Corinthians 10:31

➤ Do we strive to live so that God may be glorified, in all things?

Are you ready for the end of all things?

If you are, what has God spoken to you about where you need to grow in _____ more like you are?
