

We tend to answer the question, "Who am I?" in terms of some subjective experience ... [or] a particularly formative or emotional experience. ~Jerry Bridges Who Am I?: Identity in Christ. Page 5

Remember Who You Are.

1. You are the temple of the _____

_____.

A. He dwells in us.

• 1 Corinthians 6:19, 1 Corinthians 3:16-17, 1 John 4:4

B. He walks among us.

It is we – yes, we Christians – who form the dwelling place of God who, unlike idols, is living. ~Murray Harris, Second Epistle to the Corinthians. Page 505

C. He is our God.

D. We are His people. Leviticus 26:11-12

➤ Is God my God? Am I one of His people?

2. You are to be _____.

Only the one who obeys believes and only the one who believes obeys. ~Dietrich Bonhoeffer, The Cost of Discipleship, page 63

➤ We are to be separate, like oil and water, are we?

3. You are to be _____.

A. Do not be unequally yoked. Deuteronomy 22:10

B. Do not fellowship with lawlessness.

C. do not have koinonia with darkness. Acts 2:42

D. Do not be in accord with Belial.

E. Do not have a part with unbelievers.

F. Do not have a part with idols. Acts 2:42

• 1 Corinthians 5:5-10 NASB

➤ We are to be in the world while at the same time being exclusively committed and faithful to God.

➤ Are you partnering, in harmony, united or having koinonia with unbelievers, those who are against or opposed to God?

4. You are a _____ of God.

➤ Christians are not only God's temple, they are members of His family.

5. You are to be _____.

What did God speak to me about today?

What did He tell me or remind me about who I am?

What real, tangible choice am I going to make to live more like who I am?

